SUBJECT No. 92

Increase of Padithara and Deeparadhane allowances to Muzrai institutions.

Messrs D. Srikanta Rao, and D. S Hanumantha Rao, Devanhalli taluk.

Messrs D. S. Hanumantha Rao and D. Srikanta Rao.—In all Muzrai institutions, only a sum of annas 8 or 10 is being given every month for the purpose of Padithara, Deeparadhane, etc., and this amount does not at all suffice for the purpose intended. The devotees have contributed half the amount required for the repairs of the temples, etc., and this is supplemented by the other half given by Government. The Tasdik of these temples may therefore be raised, at least, to Rs. 4 or 5 a month for the due performance of the same.

Mr. V. Shama Iyengar.—Sir, at the time of the revision of the scale of expenditure in the case of several temples, very low remuneration has been fixed for temple servants, while decent sums of money have been shown as savings. At least, these latter sums may be made use of for increasing the emoluments of the temple servants.

Second Member of Council.—If proposals are sent up to the Muzrai Department about the particular institutions that the members have in view, they will be considered.
